

DORU TULCAN

Born 1943, Cladova, Arad, Romania

Doru Tulcan was a member of Sigma group between 1969-1978.

Created as a result of actionist experiments, his drawings and etchings explore the body's representations.

> Selected exhibitions:

1970 Group exhibition of "Sigma", Helios Gallery, Romania

1971 Group exhibition, "Romanian art today", Richard Demarco Gallery, UK

1974 Group exhibition, "Art and energy", New Gallery Bucharest; Group exhibition, "Actual space problems in the fine arts", UNESCO Gallery, Timisoara

1986 Group exhibition, Oradea Art Gallery, Romania

1991 Group exhibition, Maintz, Germany

1995 Group exhibition, Essen, Germany

1996 Solo exhibition, "Experiment", Museum of Collections, Cluj

2001 Solo exhibition, Romanian Cultural Center, Budapest, Hungary

2011 Group exhibition, "In the light of Utopia", Romanian Cultural Institute, London, UK

PRIVATE COLLECTIONS: France, Germany, Canada, Italy, USA, Greece.